LITERATURE AND COMPOSITION

$765 A La Carte / $573.50 Full Program

Students develop critical thinking and writing skills through medieval and modern texts, including Beowulf, Lord of the Flies, and To Kill a Mockingbird. Students refine grammar, composition, and rhetorical skills, preparing for high school seminars and advanced writing through essays and discussions.

ALGEBRA I

$510 A La Carte / $382.50 Full Program

Algebra I bridges concrete and abstract concepts, emphasizing solving and graphing equations. Students explore linear and quadratic equations, develop the quadratic formula, and learn to see algebraic truths as patterns and proofs. Graphing and solving equations foster understanding of algebra as real and grounded.

EARTH SCIENCE

$510 A La Carte / $382.50 Full Program

Students investigate geology, chemistry, physics, meteorology, and more, developing critical thinking, writing, and lab skills. The course fosters wonder, curiosity, and a deep understanding of Earth's complexity, preparing students for lifelong inquiry.

HISTORY

$510 A La Carte / $382.50 Full Program

U.S. History combines rigorous study with reflection on citizenship and virtue. Through thoughtful analysis and Socratic discussion, students explore key events in America's history, aiming for a deeper understanding of the nation's pursuit of a "more perfect union" and the responsibilities of civic life.

ART

$510 A La Carte / $382.50 Full Program

Students explore different painting styles and develop skills in portraying light, form, and detail. Through engaging with historical art and creating their own works, students cultivate an appreciation for beauty in visual arts.

MUSIC

$510 A La Carte / $382.50 Full Program

This course expands students' musical knowledge, focusing on harmony, theory, and recorder performance. Students explore historical eras, learn ear training and solfege, and develop a deeper appreciation of music's structure and beauty, enhancing their liberal arts education through interactive and engaging lessons.

LATIN II

$510 A La Carte / $382.50 Full Program

Students build a strong foundation in Latin grammar and vocabulary through reading, writing, speaking, and listening. They study declensions, conjugations, pronouns, and commands while exploring adapted texts like Horace and the Aeneid.
